HOMER LOCAL SCHOOL

HOMERVILLE, OHIO

DEDICATION

This year, as before, it has been a hard choice to choose who the annual should be dedicated to. We believe we have made a fine choice by dedicating the 1958 annual to Mr. E. B. Workman. Mr. Workman has had a constant watch on us for 12 years. He was our class advisor in our Freshman year and Senior year. This year he has helped and guided us in any trouble that might have confronted us. We sincerely thank you with all our heart and we hope that someday you may be very proud of us.

IN MEMORY OF

Mr. Lawrence Jeffery served on our School Board for 16 years before he passed away on October 10, 1957.

CLASS REVEALS

On September 9, 1946, a bright sunny morning, one boy and 11 girls toddled into the first grade room to meet their teacher, Mrs. Herman Owen. There are only six little rascals that have struggled through all 12 years of school together. They are Homer Sooy, Carole Spellman, Barbara Allen, Wilma Foster, Linda Jo Grissinger, and Leilani Simcox. Pat Strine and Berniece Trapp also started with us.

In another little burg about 6 miles away, there were also little children starting to school. This little burg was Albion. There were 7 bright-eyed children going to school. They were met at the door by their teacher, Mrs. Florence Welch. Marie Frank, David Blodgett, and David Snoddy are the only 3 out of the 7 that have survived their 12 years together.

Once again, in our second year, we returned to the same room and the same teacher. Although we were in need of boys this year, we were very happy when Marcia Rex an Mary Stites joined our class. Albion second graders were also happy to return to the same room and teacher.

In our third year, we were shipped to Albion and united with their third grade. Our new teacher was Mrs. Kathryn Soka. The year Pat Strine left us to go to Mansfield, but our class was increased by two new members, Bruce Campbell and Betty Jean Hoffman.

As each year went along we were getting a little brighter and braver, although we were bright to begin with!

Next year we were shipped back at Homer. This year we entered our fourth year, and were introduced to our new teacher Mrs. Mrytle Hockensmith (nee Miss Mrytle Hastings). This was also the year we presented our first operetta, "Rip Van Winkle."

The next year was a sad one for us, because we were divided into two classes. Half of the class joined the late Mrs. Flora Pike and the other half stayed with Mrs. Hockensmith. We were happy to have Pat Strine come back, and also a new member Wanda Shorts, but we also lost one member, Berniece Trapp.

When the next year came, we were in the sixth grade. This year we were all joined together again into one class. Half of the class stayed in their old room and the other half came to join them. Their teacher was the late Mrs. Beatrice Jenkins.

Our next year was a big jump, we were in junior high school. We didn't have one teacher in particular, but quite a few. This year Berniece Trapp came back to join our class again, and Herman Trapp also joined our class.

Our eighth year was sort of sad, because everything that happened, the eighth grade was supposed to have done it.

We still stuck together in spite of everything to be a happy and bright class. This year Fred Hines joined us to make another smiling face in our class.

Here we are in the ninth grade. High School, just imagine us in high school! We were just beginning to enjoy our freshman year when wham! initiation! This was a whole week of dressing in funny clothes and doing crazy things. This year our basketball team won the Medina County League and Tournament. Then went on to win the Lorain Sectional Tournament, and from there to the District Tournament at Kent. Altogether this was a very exciting year and we were very happy when Ralph Crebs joined our class. Our advisor this year was Mr. E. B. Workman.

In our tenth year, we were very proud to order the prettiest class rings ever in Homer School. This year we kept our mothers very busy baking pies at noon, which turned out to be very profitable. We were very proud to present a one-act play this year. It was "Nobody Sleeps." Our advisor was Mrs. Mary Hines.

In our junior year, we had for our advisor Mrs. Mabel Neiswinter. We had many money-making projects this year. Some of them were scrap drives, selling popcorn, potato chips and hot dogs at basketball games. In the spring we presented our class play, "Spring Prom Magic."

It was a riotous comedy and a great success. Then finally came the time we had waited for all year long. Our Junior - Senior Prom.

BACKGROUND

It was held in the cafeteria, and our theme was Moonlight and Roses. The cafeteria was decorated with our class colors, royal blue and white. Our mothers prepared the dinner and it was served by the Home Economics Class. Maynard Sowards Orchestra played for the dance.

At last we are finally at the top. Our Senior Year! We were happy to have Mr. Workman as our advisor again. First of all we presented our class play, "Love Your Neighbor". It was doubtful whether the play would be presented because of a broken piano, little time to practice and unlearned lines, but leave it to us and everything goes off fine.

Next was the excitement of senior pictures. Everyone was very pleased and happy with them.

Our project for the year was selling pop, candy and gum at the basketball games, after a little quarrel with the juniors.

At the moment we are anxiously looking forward to our senior trip to Washington and New York. We will travel by train.

After the trip will come the thrill of Commencement. We will walk down the aisle in blue and white gowns and with a sigh of relief and we will receive our diplomas. We are proud and honored to be the fiftieth graduating class of Homer High School.

OUR FUTURE

Dear friend,

The class of "58" of Homer Local School, located at Homerville, Ohio in Medina County is planning a week long tour of their various vocations to celebrate their 20th year of freedom from the tears, hardships and teachers of their 12 long years at Homer School

The tour of these former graduates will start Monday, May 22 and end May 28. The itinerary for the trip is listed below and the price per person is $250.00. This expensive price includes hotel accommodations, meals, travel expenses and theater tickets. Any other thing that you will want to purchase will have to be from your own pocket.

ITINERARY

1:30 p.m. -- The tour will start at the Lodi Airport. An airplane will be chartered and will fly you to LaGuardia field in New York. Airport Cadillac limousines will then transport you to Hotel New York where there will be a room reserved for each person or couple. These rooms will be on the expensive third floor. Each room will have a terrace which will afford an excellent view of New York and the waterfront. Room service will be free except for cocktails and mixed drinks.

The rest of the day until 7:30 p.m. will be free. You may go shopping during this time or you may go sightseeing. At 7:30 p.m. we will assemble in the lobby of the hotel and then board a chartered bus and travel to Pat's Place where we will eat dinner. You will be allowed to order anything that you would like. Pat Strine has owned this famous night club since 1971 when she inherited it from her fifth husband's estate.

10:30 p.m.--You will return to the hotel by bus and retire for the day.

Tuesday

8:00 a.m. -- Breakfast will be served on the terrace.

9:00 a.m. -- Everyone will assemble in the lobby and then board a chartered Greyhound bus that will take you to Manhattan Island. The first place the bus will stop at will be Wall Street. Here we will visit the office of Fred Hines. It all depends on how the prices are fluctuating as to whether Fred can spend much time with the group. Fred has played the market for years and he is still losing.

11:30 a.m. -- You will travel by bus to Mousie's Tavern on the east side of Manhattan. Lunch will be served and any extra beverage that is ordered will have to be at your own expense.

12:30 p.m. -- Everyone will walk back to Casey's Pool Room. Anyone will be able to play pool at the expense of the owner and operator, Ralph Crebs. Ralph has operated this joint since he retired from the Lucky Strike cigarette industry.

4:00 p.m. -- The bus will transport you back to the hotel. The rest of the afternoon until 7:00 will be free.

7:00 p.m. -- Cocktails will be served on the terrace. The hostess for this and the delicious dinner that follows is Carole Spellman. Dinner will be served in the gracious white wall room.

The evenings' entertainment will be a floor show of the latest women's fashions presented by the models of the Carole Spellman Model Agency. Featured singer will be Miss Leilani Simcox. Leilani is the nation's top rock and roll recording artist.

Free cigarettes will be distributed among the guests. These "weeds" will be furnished by the Sooy Cigarette and Cigar Company. It might be wise to pay for these cigarettes since the company is going bankrupt. The cigarette girl is Berniece Trapp. She has been cigarette girl for 6 years since Carole fired her from the Model Agency.

Wednesday

8:00 a.m. -- Breakfast will be served in the dining room.

9:00 a.m. -- Everyone will assemble in the lobby and walk to Grand Central Station. Here we will board the east bound train at gate No. 5 for a day's trip to New England.

9:55 a.m. -- The train will arrive in Boston. Here you will board a bus and travel back into the mountains to a secluded cabin. The owner and inhabitant of this mountain paradise is Mary Stites and her family. This is where Mary has written her four Pulitzer Prize Novels. Mary will also serve lunch before you return to Boston.

2:00 p.m. -- You will return to the train and proceed on to Hartford, Connecticut. Here is the summer home of the great Barbara Allen. Since Barbara is on a European honeymoon with her sixth husband, her daughter will be the hostess for the tour of the great estate.

LIES AHEAD

6:00 p.m. -- Dinner will be served in the dining room and immediately afterwards you will board a bus which will transport you to the airport. An A-D-C constellation jet airliner will fly you back to Boston in time for the first musical show for the Boston Symphony Orchestra of the season. The director will be David Snoddy. He will also play a clarinet solo accompanied by Miss Wanda Shorts at the organ. An hour long musical featuring this great organist and accompanied by the Symphony Orchestra will be one of the many highlights of the evening.

11:00 p.m. -- You will board the jet airliner again and travel in 45 minutes to Miami Florida. You will spend the night in the Miami Hotel.

Thursday

8:00 a.m. -- Breakfast on the terrace.

9:00 a.m. -- There will be a lecture in the cocktail room. Featured speakers will be Marcia Rex and Linda Jo Grissinger. Marcia will lecture on her life on the Dark continent. She has spent 15 years in the jungle with Joy Joy tribe. Linda will speak on her experience as a lady wrestler. She was the light weight champion of 1965.

10:30 a.m. -- You will be driven by bus to the Patrick Air Force Base. Here you will meet the Captain of the Air Force WAF Captain Dixie Ramsier. Dixie is not loved by any means around the base by the women. She is known as the toughest captain in the Air Force except to the men and then she forgets her rank.

12:00 a.m. -- Lunch will be served in the dining room of the Hotel Foster. Wilma operates this swank hotel from the money she collects from the alimony of her four divorced millionaire husbands.

After lunch you will travel to the brand new giant shopping center. This shopping center covers 28 acres and you will arrive there for the official opening. This is considered the best and most expensive shopping center in the world today. The architect was David Blodgett who owns Blodgett architect agency.

6:00 p.m. -- You will be back at the Hotel and there will be one hour to change into formal dress to attend a movie premier and dinner.

7:00 p.m. -- There will be a banquet in the Dining Room of the Hotel Miami. Hostess will be the great Betty Hoffman who has just returned from a world tour with her husband, Mike Todd.

8:00 p.m. -- The premier of the movie, THE TALL MAN FROM MARS will be in the theater of the hotel. The star of the show will be present at the premier, who is no other than the ex-school teacher and present actor, Bruce Campbell.

We are sorry to say that we will not be able to acquaint you with another member of the graduating class, that is Marie Frank. Unfortunately Marie lives in the South Pacific on an island with her husband and their eighteen children. She gives her best regards to you and she hopes that you will enjoy the trip. We'll be seeing you. Good-bye and God bless you.

Sincerely yours,

David Blodgett

CLASS PRESENTS PLAY

"Spring Prom Magic" took place in the living room of the Allister household in the residential section of a large city in the East. Pretty and attractive seventeen-year old Terry Allister has a crush on THE Warren Spade, star athlete and the most popular boy in school. Terry is determined that Warren will date her for the forthcoming Spring Prom and decided that she will make herself over in order to attract him. In the process of this she ended up with green hair. Haughty, spoiled Ursula Peabody wants Warren to date her for the Prom Night and with this in mind she launched a campaign to disgrace Terry. For a while it looks as though Ursula's unfair scheme will succeed, but just as Terry is going down, Ursula's dishonest scheme backfires and Terry's "Heartbeat" does date her for "Prom Night".

The Senior Class of "58" gave this three-act comedy during their Junior year on April 9th and 10th. It was a huge success. It was under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Neiswinter.

CLASS GETS INITIATED

The Freshman initiation lasted from October 4, 1954 until the 8th. Monday the boys had to wear scarves around their heads and roll their pant legs up; it was very cool! The girls wore braids and old work shoes, we sounded like horses running around the halls. Both the boys and girls had to bow to the sophomores and say, "Praise the sophomores." Tuesday the boys wore aprons and carried a spoon around; girls wore dresses and hats to look like old maids. Wednesday the boys wore baby blankets, carried women's purses, and rolled up their pant legs. The girls wore suspenders, old twine, or string to hold up their skirts. Friday, the last day of initiation, the girls wore shirts and ties; some of those ties about knocked your eyes out! The boys wore jewelry; all ears were sore from those earrings.

On Friday night came the big event, the initiation party. To start things off we arrived and got a few squirts of water and a few swats with magazines; also took off our shoes and socks. The first game was very thrilling; we had to roll chalk across the floor with our noses. Only a few sore noses and a face full of Rapid-Shave resulted. Some of us were awfully hungry, so they blindfolded us and gave us each a banana with some tasty garlic powder on it. We all ate them down heartily and went on. Winners got a faceful of Rapid-Shave. Next was the marshmellow-on-the-string; finally the winner enjoyed Rapid-Shave for a prize. By that time our feet were a little dirty, so everyone was blindfolded and the girls washed the boys' feet and the boys washed the girls' feet.

After that we were blindfolded and had to follow a string. We went up and down steps, under seats, under chairs, under tables, under the stage, and over water puddles. We ended up at the cafeteria for refreshments. After refreshments a few of us dipped for apples in water and then for candy in a can of flour.

After this everyone was assigned to a cleaning detail. When the cleaning was done, everyone went to the gym to find their shoes and socks and untie the knots in our shoe strings. This ended our initiation. A few bruises were the only injuries resulting from the party. Everyone survived!

This year our cheerleaders made history by being chosen Medina County's All-County team. This was the first year that Homer has received this honor. Marcia Rex was a veteran from last year, but Marie Frank and Linda Norris were new on this years team. Marie and Marcia have cheered for six years and Linda has completed her fourth. Marty and Marie graduate this year so Linda will be back all by herself next year. Congratulations girls!

The annual staff regrets that the picture taken of the Jr. High team in uniform did not take.

We wish to congratulate the Jr. High on the fine work they did this past year.

They finished first in this section of the county with a 5-0 record. This entitled them to play Brunswick at the tournament. Because of lack of height they were defeated. They received a beautiful trophy for being Runners-Up in the County. Their Coach was Mr. Thomas Bangert, who really encouraged those boys to win.

Congratulations boys and Good luck in the future.
